1925-2015

Ernakulam Karayogam a voluntary, not for profit, charitable, social and cultural organisation has completed 89 years of its service to the society. The Karayogam celebrated its platinum Jubilee in the year 2001. It will be inappropriate not to trace the Ernakulam Karayogam's colourful past, hall marked by selfless service to the society when it is entering the glorious 90th year.

Founded by 11 eminent members from the Nair community of Ernakulam, has an association for promoting goodwill and amity among the various sections of the society, the EKMKGm has become a prominent organisation rendering a number of social, spiritual, cultural and charitable activities.

Ernakulam Karayogam was registered as a charitable society in the year 1925 under the then Cochin Literary Scientific and Charitable Societies Act II of 1088 (ME) and it stands registered as the society No.1 under the Travancore Cochin Literary Scientific and charitable Societies Act XII of 1955. The far sightness and the objectives of the founder members have been demonstrated in the years thereafter by ever expanding and widely acclaimed activities.

Rendering of service continues to be the first and foremost object of EKMKGm and in the endeavour no consideration is given for cast, creed, community & religion. Ernakulam Karayogam gives due importance to promote spiritual activities by regularly conducting discourses by spiritual leaders, arranging Yajnas on Srimad Bhagavath Githa, Mahabharatha, Bhagavatha, Ramayana, Srimad Narayaneeyam and Upanishad. The 108 days Sampoorna Bhagavath Githa Njana Yajnam Conducted in the year 2005-2006 was widely appreciated by the society which prompted Karayogam to conduct 108 days Sampoorna Srimad Bhagavatha Yajnam in the year 2009, 54 days Upanishad Vichara Yajnam in 2013.

The charitable and social commitment of Ernakulam Karayogam is demonstrated through the supply of lifesaving medicines to the needy patients of General Hospital, Ernakulam for the last 5000 days and extending this facility to the cancer, HIV, and CMHP patients in addition of providing financial and other assistance to marriage, education etc to the poor and needy people. Financial assistance has also extended to dialysis, Heart surgery irrespective of caste, creed and religion.

Providing financial assistance and scholarships for education is yet another area of service. It also extends financial support by way of pension to the members who are above the age of 75 and are financially weak and also to widows above the age of 60.

Extending support for conducting last rites and funeral is yet another service rendered by the Ernakulam Karayogam. The volunteers of Ernakulam Karayogam ensures that the last rites are conducted in accordance with religious customs. The service is extended free of cost to the members and getting expenses reimbursed to the non members. (Mobile mortuary and ambulance service is also made available).
